17th Annual National Award-Winning
Teleconference:
Cancer and End-of-Life Care

Each year the Hospice Foundation of America (HFA) presents a nationally recognized distance learning program, live via satellite and webcast, to more than 150,000 people in over 2,000 communities. For the past 16 years, this annual educational program has been instrumental in educating health care professionals and families on issues affecting end-of-life care. The program provides an opportunity for a wide variety of professionals – including doctors, nurses, funeral directors, psychologists, educators, social workers and bereavement counselors – to share and exchange ideas and obtain continuing education credits.

HFA's 2010 teleconference, Cancer and End-of-Life Care, will address care options related to cancer diagnoses as well as loss and grief reactions for patients, families and professional caregivers. The teleconference will also examine psychosocial aspects of cancer, pain management, and ethical issues related to the disease.

This program will be moderated by Frank Sesno, Director of the School of Media and Public Affairs, at The George Washington University.

It is FREE to attend the Teleconference!

CE Credits Available

Continuing education contact hours (CEs) will be available through the Hospice Foundation of America for nurses, social workers, counselors, funeral directors, clergy, psychologists, physicians, EAPs and nursing home administrators. Please verify CE availability with your professional or state board approval.

There is a $25 online processing fee per certificate, per participant. Online CE instructions will be provided to you on March 24. The processing fee through the mail with HFA is $35. Checks, written out to HFA, will be collected on the day of the broadcast. There is a $10 charge per participant for each additional certificate requested.
